Frequently Asked Questions

Q. How long will it take to process my application?

A. Applications may take up to 4 working weeks to process, from the date that the application is received correctly completed and with all necessary evidence/information. At peak times, processing may take longer.

Q. What if my situation is urgent?

A. If your situation is urgent you can get further advice from firstpoint but you should not delay submitting this application.

Q. What evidence should I supply with my application?

A. You must provide all appropriate evidence as detailed on page 6 of the form, translated into English where appropriate.

Q. How will I know if my application has been successful?

A. You will receive a letter, sent to your University email address.

Q. What change in circumstances would mean I would get a further award from the Access to Learning Fund?

A. It would need to be a significant change in circumstances which has occurred after your first award from the fund. For example:

- A new unexpected cost such as essential car repairs, replacement of essential household goods, unexpected bill etc.
- Loss of income – for example due to redundancy, reduction in working hours, illness, change to Welfare Benefits or a change to your student income.
- Financial pressure caused by relationship breakdown
- Increase in costs due to change in your studies, for example increased placement travel costs or increased childcare costs.

You should tell us as much as possible about your change in circumstances and be clear about the affect it has had on your circumstances and your studies.
